

Mr. Bryce P. Robare

November 9, 1984 - October 7, 2019

It is with a sad and heavy heart that we inform the community that our beloved Bryce was overcome by his long term struggle with substance abuse Monday October 7th.

Unfortunately, like thousands of others Bryce couldn't seem to kick the demons of addiction for a healthy life we all dreamed he would have. Most recently, Bryce had been doing well after spending months in a sober living facility working the 12 steps and then staying with a friend while trying to start a new life. We're forever thankful he had that opportunity.

Most of the time, Bryce was so much more than his addiction. He was a big brother who loved to prank his younger sisters; he loved playing hockey and spending time outdoors. He loved to fish with his father and uncles and work on home projects and shoot darts and pool with his mom. Bryce had a passion for protecting the environment and was a lifelong learner. He was often caught watching the history channel and giving us the Spark Notes on his favorite documentaries. He was a skilled carpenter, always proud to show you his completed projects and enjoyed making stained glass art. You could always count on Bryce for a good laugh and an even better hug. We wish Bryce could have seen what we saw in him and why we were always hoping he would write a different ending than he did Monday.

He was predeceased by his grandmother Dianne, grandfathers Harold and James and cousin Jessica.

Bryce leaves behind his biggest fan club- his parents Peg and Pete, his sisters Kelsey and Ellyn, three very special Aunts Emilee, Donna and Mary, his grandmother Isabelle, grandfather Dick and many uncles, aunts, cousins and dear friends.

Bryce's services will be private but we ask that those who knew Bryce find a way to celebrate his life.

In lieu of flowers, please consider making a donation to Addiction Connection Resource, 1804 Harford Road, Fallston MD 21047 or another substance abuse program in honor of Bryce and his cousin Jessica.

“ Susan and I were so stunned and saddened to hear of Bryce’s passing. Even though we did not know him personally, we know how sad and tragic it is for the entire family. We are hoping to come to the Berkshires near the end of the month, and we hope to be able to express our condolences in person to at least some of the family.

“ So sorry for your loss. My heart goes out to you Peg and the whole family. I worked with Peg at the VNA many years ago. My two children were very good friends with Bryce and he spent much time at my house in their younger years. Bryce was always smiling, kind and always with great words of wisdom. I wish you could have found the strength to use such wisdom to fight these demons of addiction. God bless you Bryce, rest in peace.

Prayers and thoughts go out to you Peg and family, my heart breaks for you all, “ Pete and Peg and girls, I am so sorry for your loss. Addiction is such a terrible thing to go through and to recover from.

Bryce was always a handsome boy and man. I wish his adult life could have been easier for him. Please feel some comfort in knowing that Dianne is holding him in her arms now and he has found peace.

My prayers are with you and your family.

“ I am so proud of how far Bryce had come. He genuinely had a positive outlook for his recovery was starting to see a future for himself. Something that I hadn't seen from him in quite some time. He was reaching out for support and admitting he couldn't do it alone.

I love his sense of humor and there is absolutely nothing better than the sound of his laughter when he genuinely thought something was funny, especially when it was a joke he told. He was the friend that would randomly send a message just to say "Have a great day!" or "I love you." There are very few memories I have of my younger years that don't directly include him and not a time in my life that he was not my first go to. Got a promotion. Tell Bryce. Had a bad day. Call Bryce, he'll make it better. Need to talk to someone that will listen. Call Bryce. Have a funny sorry. Call Bryce, he'll want to laugh.

I'm grateful that I was able to have him in my life for so long and wish it could've been for longer. I truly appreciate every moment I had with him; even when it was us having another dumb argument because that just meant he'd eventually have to admit he was wrong (and I lived for those moments).
