“ There are no words that can take away your grief, your sadness at such a loss. I can't even find words of comfort as none exist strong enough to uplift you. At times like this I feel the world just needs to stop, pause, and pay tribute to a beautiful life. I'm glad you're sharing her art with the world as that's what it needs. It needs to see some of the beauty, the talent, the good that has been here. I'm praying for all of you and hope that eventually the pain is replaced by the beauty she carried. Much love and prayers, Deb Aulisio Mahar

“ To the Drinan family, We are so truly sorry for the loss of Julia. We remember her from kindergarten class and Girl Scouts as being such a sweet and kind person. Ness truly enjoyed conversations they shared in class and on the bus to GHAA. It was often mentioned of the artistic talent Julia possessed. Please know we are thinking of all of you and sending our heartfelt condolences.

“ I am so very sorry to hear of Julia's passing. I remember her well when she attended Sunday School at WSCC. Whenever they had a presentation, she was such a natural on stage. Her personality just drew you to her. I always felt she would be an actress. She was a very special young lady. I hope knowing that she is now walking beside Jesus in perfect peace and happiness will bring you some comfort. You are all in my prayers.

“ Dear Richard, Mary, Nathan and Nicole, I wanted you to know that your decision to make the Art for Life foundation a part of Julia's memorial is incredibly touching. I remember working with a young lady in hospice who was Julia's age. She was creating art legacy pieces for her family. I will never forget the radiance she had in her eyes knowing that her art would help to carry the light of her soul to her family and help them to find their way in the future through dark times and difficult memories. I know that Julia's art will continue to inspire you. I hope in it you will find her joy, her laughter and her love. Dark times will grow lighter and difficult memories will be replaced with powerful ones filled with love. And Julia's art, like Julia's spirit will continue to be a part of your family. Family like love... is forever. With much love, Anthony Knutson - Founder The Art for Life Foundation.
