“ I have know Ken as a colleague and a friend from his days working at CPM in Springfield through his latest job at BerkshireWorks. (Actually was happy to have served as a reference for him for that job). Always a caring person, especially to those in most need (homeless, people in poverty, young people).But I also frequently caught a ride with Ken to Springfield while at CPM when my husband and I were traveling and didn't want two cars. Always shared great stories of family and work stuff.The pick-up location was downtown Pittsfield (not his normal route to Springfield). One time he forgot me -- drove all the way back from Cummington on Route 9 to get me! Just the kind of guy he was.My condolences to family, friends and co-workers... Christine Abramowitz

“ My deepest condolences and prayers are with Ken's family. Such a kind, generous and compassionate man! God sometimes calls the best of us home first, leaving such a void and emptiness in our hearts. I will pray for him and for your devastating loss. He will always be remembered for his "dash".

“ Noreen, Remember me with smiles and laughter, for that is how I will remember you all. If you can only remember me with tears, then don't remember me at all. In your time of sadness I hope this quote from Laura Ingalls Wilder will help you. My deepest condolences to you and your family at this time.

“ Noreen and family - Ken was more than a boss to me - he was my mentor, my friend and inspiration. No matter the situation, he always had a smile and saw the good in everything. No matter how bad things would/could be Ken always knew how to see the bright side. I strive to do that every day. In the words of my niece, "go hit some balls at the range in honor of Ken!"

“ Ken's kindness and perpetual smile was something I always enjoyed seeing as we worked together years ago and when our paths would cross in more recent years. We always shared a laugh, an appreciation for the good things being done to help others and a commitment to ongoing support of those good things. I will miss those moments. Heartfelt condolences to the Demer family.

“ I was very sad when I was told the news about Ken this morning. We worked together when he worked at New England Farm Worker's Council. He was one of the kindest and compassionate men I have known and he loved his family very much. I enjoyed all of his stories and I especially loved hearing about the coffee shop that his son had opened. My thoughts and prayers are with all of you. Donna Nadeau

Ken Springhetti - June 07, 2018 at 11:06 AM

“ Ken was the Residence Director and later the principal at my school. He was someone that students and staff all respected deeply. He even helped me when I needed information years later after the school closed. Now I wish that I kept those last emails. Whenever my wife and I choose to camp in the Berkshires, she gets an earful about Ken. My heart feels for the Demers family that is missing him.

“ Dearest Demers Family, I have never met Kenneth. His son, Dan, is one of my best friends. Dan is a reserved person yet he exudes compassion and kindness. Dan, like his own father, adores his son. I am deeply sorry for Kenneth's sudden passing. He lives on in his sons, grandchild and future grandchildren. With much love, Claudia Barrett

“ Dear Demers family: I just learned of the passing of my friend Ken in the Springfield College Alumni Magazine. Ken was my classmate at Springfield College, and my business partner when we were the chefs for two summers at Camp Woodstock YMCA camp in Woodstock Connecticut. Ken and I were a team and a tour-de-force in the kitchen. We had a psychic connection together. We could communicate with one another without speaking, and we entertained the entire camp, from the kids to the counselors with our comedy act. One of my most memorable times with him was when we went with friends to Newport Rhode Island to watch the 1976 America's Cup races. We sailed on a 60 foot sailboat, and went out for dinner at Custy's all-you-can eat lobster restaurant. We waited in line to get in to Custy's behind Bobo Brazil, a famous professional wrestler at the time. We competed with Bobo to see who could eat the most lobster. We lost, but I remember that Ken ate 14 lobsters. I remember that the losers had to get up on the table and sing to the diners in the restaurant. A memorable weekend. My other great memory of Ken was from the winter of our senior year at Springfield College, when we sponsored and cooked for our friends a massive pig roast on the east campus of Springfield College. It was our last hurrah as a comedy team. I lost track of Ken. I never talked to him again after that summer. But he was an amazing guy. I know that all of the success that I have had in my career started right there in the kitchen of Camp Woodstock. My condolences to you. Lorin Ranbom Lorinranbom@yahoo.com

“ Dear Demers Family: I too just read about Ken's passing in the Springfield College Alumni bulletin. My deepest sympathies to the entire Demers family for your loss. Ken was one of my best friends at Springfield College (Class of 1976) - we were roommates in International Hall during our sophomore year and we were teammates on the track and field team all four years at SC. Ken was a wonderful and loyal friend, a terrific teammate, an amazing athlete (triple jump and long jump were his specialties) and just an all-around good guy. My wife Mary Ellen and I will certainly keep Ken and his family in our thoughts and prayers. Respectfully -David Johnson davidlinjohnson7276@gmail.com
