“ My condolences to Alice's family. I only knew Alice briefly around '08 or '09. We talked a few times when I was writing an article on the North Italians who settled in Adams from the Valtellina. She came to Adams around 1848 so she knew my grandmother and my aunts and uncles when they were younger and had some great stories to tell. We also hung out with the Sons of Italy at the time. I hope she got to share her stories with her family because she was growing up there when the Italian immigrants in Adams were in their heyday. It was a special time when so many people from the same part of Italy were all living in the same neighborhoods in Adams, Cheshire, Lenox, Stockbridge and shared that double connection. My best regards ... Rich Girard, Boston

“ She will be so missed but the wonderful memories that I have of all the wonderful family times is everlasting. She kept us all in line and led the family through everything that set to create a problem. She was a pioneer and the bravest woman I have ever known. She is a beautiful memory for me and I thank her for that.
