“ So sad to hear of Andy’s passing. He was our Eagle home delivery man in Hinsdale, and our paper was always delivered on time, snow or rain. Leslie and Bob LaPlante

Andy’s service in delivering my newspaper was stellar. For some reason, one day I decided to call him to express my gratitude and spoke to his wife, Raquel. I had no idea that that morning’s delivery was to be his last. Having never met Andy and because his service to my home had started many years ago, I assumed he was an older man and was retiring. I shall always remember how he enriched my life simply by delivering my paper without fail each and every day, securing it on my front porch railing so I could retrieve it easily. Please accept my deepest sympathy. Carol Perkins
