

Anna G. Johnson, RN

August 17, 1929 - August 19, 2014

Anna Grace Johnson, RN, 85, of Lynwood, Washington, a native of Adams, died Tuesday, August 19, 2014, in Lynwood.

She was born in Adams on August 17, 1929, a daughter of the late George and Carrie (Mahar) Johnson. She attended schools in Adams, graduating from the former Adams High School in 1947. She graduated from the Bishop Memorial School of Nursing, Pittsfield, in 1950 as a Registered Nurse.

Miss Johnson worked at the former Pittsfield General Hospital as a Registered Nurse in the Maternity Dept., and also was an assistant instructor of nurses.

After several years of nursing in Pittsfield, she enlisted in the United States Air Force, and was stationed for several years at the U.S. Military Hospital in Wiesbaden, Germany. While there, she was also able to travel to other countries including France, Italy, and Denmark.

Following her Honorable Discharge, Anna settled in Seattle, WA, where she continued working as a Registered Nurse in several hospitals and doctor's offices, until finally retiring to Lynwood.

She is survived by a sister, Dorothy Howcroft, of Williamstown, and by several nieces, nephews, grandnieces and grandnephews.

She was predeceased by her brothers, George Johnson, Jr. and Byron Johnson.

A graveside committal service will be held on Friday, September 26, 2014, at 12 Noon in Bellevue Cemetery, Adams.

Rev. Peter T. Elvin, Rector of St. John's Episcopal Church, Williamstown, will officiate. Relatives and friends are invited.

The PACIOREK FUNERAL HOME, Adams, is in charge of arrangements.
