She was born in Adams on December 20, 1923, a daughter of the late Bartholomew and Mary Jane (Ryan) McAndrews. She graduated from the former Adams High School in 1943 and attended Bliss Business College in North Adams for two years. From 1944-1946 she served as a WAVE in the US Navy at the US Naval Barracks in Washington, DC with a rating of Seaman First Class. While serving with the Navy she attended Hunter College in New York City and State Teachers College in Cedar Falls, Iowa, and worked in the Bureau of Personnel in Washington, D.C. She is a charter member of the Women in Military Service for America. She retired as director of the town welfare department in 1985 after a long career in public service. She started as a junior clerk in 1948 and was named director of the town's welfare department in May of 1957. In 1968, when the state took over local welfare boards, she remained as head of the department. In her retirement letter she wrote "It is time for a person who started in an office with one Underwood manual typewriter for three staff members to realize the change to a "computer on every desk" is a new direction. As exciting as these changes will be I think it is time for me to think in terms of a new direction as well."

former St. Thomas Aquinas Church, Adams. She was a member of the Adams Post 160 American Legion.

Her husband, Chester T. Ciuk, whom she married on October 11, 1947 in St. Thomas Aquinas Church, died on December 2, 2019. They were married for 72 years.

She is survived by her daughter, Mary Ciuk of Adams; her son, James Ciuk of Weehawken, NJ; a brother James McAndrews of Attleboro; a sister, Marijane Pansecchi of Adams and many nieces and nephews. “ What a wonderfully long life Ann (Egan) had. She was part of my own and my children's lives for years.. She was always perfect in her appearance and behavior and as such taught our children how to be gracious and proud. She knew everyone and I always enjoyed a good conversation with her about what was happening in town and around us.

God speed Ann, go to your Chet.

“ *To Anne's lovely Family,
She was the sweetest Lady, and for all of her goodness to my children, mother and many years ago, my gramma; I am so grateful. We treasured her love, laughter and sparkling eyes, the kindness she shared inside and outside church, doctor's office, or checking to see how Randy and Shannon were enjoying their lessons at St Stanislaus School, I will always remember. Anne was a dear Friend. I will miss her so very much.*

Anne, Peace and Eternal Happiness is yours because Heaven received an "Adams Angel."
