“ She was my coworker and she made work ten times better. I loved how positive she always was and she would always make me laugh, even during stressful times. Barb was one of the nicest and happiest people I've ever met. She will always be one of my happiest memories from work and I'll miss her dearly. I love you, Barb. You mean the world to me and so many other people.

“ How can you put in to words how much of an an impact someone has had on your life and your community? Barb was someone who was truly special and deserves all of the love and support. To me she was always like a second mom or a “cool mom” you never had. Always cheering for everyone at every game lending a hand wherever. Barbara was always there. I just hope now we can all do our part and come together and show her how much she truly meant to each and everyone one of us!
