“ Dear Debbie and family,
I will always remember your mother in many nice ways. When I was growing up and went to your house, she was right there smiling, happy to see me. She made me feel right at home. She was always interested in whatever was going in other's lives and shared her wisdom whenever she thought we needed help along the way. It was always a pleasure to see her and talk for a while and she would always mention you, Dick and while doing that, she always had her "mom" smile on. She loved you both very, very much. You have my sympathy as she will be missed for her thoughtful and loving ways.
