“ I am two years late, but unfortunately I just saw this.

I have always remembered Carol with fondness and gratitude. She was so nice to me. It is easy to be kind to someone who is being nice -but it takes much more character to be patient and giving to someone who is a bit more caustic and undeveloped, as I was at the time.

I admired Carol. She worked diligently and hard to provide for her family. She created an organized and clean home. She created stability. She was a loving person.

Carol and her husband made dinner for me once, when I was on a trip back home. I was so happy that she had found a soul mate for her later years.

I am grateful for the acceptance that she had given to me. Some gifts stay with us forever.

*With Fondness,
Anna*

“ I remember when I was very young and Auntie Carol was driving and my Nonie was in the passenger seat. My Auntie had rollers in her hair, smoking a Pall Mall (NO FILTER) and lipstick on. I also respect your discipline and patience that you had given me when I was growing up. RIP. Love you always and forever, Your niece Holly Kittler Sweet.
