“ Please accept my deep condolences on the great loss of Aunt Carrie. I grew hearing all about this caring and good woman from Mom (Dorothy). I only got to meet her once when we were small. Aunt Carrie's caring and generous nature meant so much. Our family feels her beautiful influence to this day. I helped Aunt Carrie obtain information on Uncle Jimmy about his WWII service and find his name on the WWII Memorial. She was so appreciative, and I was honored to do something for her and to learn more about Uncle Jimmy. To her caregivers, Janice and Helen, thank you for your generosity and kindness to her. She's with Uncle Joe now. May this thought and sweet memories of Aunt Carrie bring you peace.
