“ Dear Dottie, Will, Dan, grandchildren and great-grandchildren,My heartfelt sympathy at this very sad time of loss. I will always remember my cousin Celia as a friend with whom I shared delightful summer visits and years ago this included her sisters Phyllis and Helen. She was a lovely lady who was kind, generous, hospitable, and always with an unforgettable smile. I will truly miss her, the Christmas cards we exchanged, and the delicious home garden vegetables that she so willingly shared with me. Celia was also a wonderful "Adams ambassador" offering a helping hand and keeping me informed of local news and happenings. May she rest in peace.
