“ Bill, Betty, Elise and Family -- So sorry to hear about the loss of your mom. I got to know her a bit when Bill was a member of the Youth Center when I was Exec. Director. She was a kind and generous woman with a great sense of humor. We used to joke and laugh about some of Bill's childhood escapades. I lost my mom 8 years ago, and the pain of the loss does wane with time. However, know that as she did in life, she'll be watching over you as your newest guardian angel.

“ So sorry for your loss. My heart goes out to all that loved Chari. Including my aunts Heidi and Hope. I met Chari a few years back when she and my aunt Hope reunited while we were up in Mass for a wedding, they talked the night away laughing crying and reminiscing. You could just see how much they cherished the friendship that started soo many years ago! Both my Aunts got to spend some time with Chari in October as we were up for another wedding, I know it meant so much to the both of them, and even more so now, they have a lifetime of memories together that they will cherish.

“ I have known Chari for 40+ years as a child mostly in our teenage years. When she moved next door to me in Adams in the late 60s i was so excited. I befriended her and her whole family as did my sisters and mom and dad. She was very friendly ,understanding and calm cool and collected as a kid never getting in trouble always a good kid. I seen her periodically over the years and was always happy when i did it brought back so many good memories. I pass my condolences to the Casper,Millard and Oparowski families i wish you all the best. My God be with you all and Chari forever and ever. R.I.P. my friend you were a great lady

“ I remember the day we meant, my dear Chari, we were young teenagers and you had just moved to Adams I thought you were so cool and you wore the neatest clothes ever and every day as we walked home from school you would see me and run home, finally one day I chased you and caught up and said hey hi my name is Hope and you said I know Hope Beckwith and you are going to beat me up, I was taken back because I never would of beat her up she had a cute brother I wanted to meet lol and I thought she was cool, we talked all the way home after that day we became so close, we used to sit out on the roof of my porch and joke and talk and listen to music until it was time for her to go home, it was great...As we both grew and had families of our own and moved here and there we never lost that connection that we had when ever I went back home I would always look her up, the time before this last one we met and asked each other if we were happy I said yes and she said that she was very happy , I asked her if she had ever met anybody or dated after Mike had passed and she said no she had not and was not ever interested in meeting anyone that she had her children and her grandchildren and her life was overflowing with love and happiness and I knew she was truly happy she loved her life and loved her family they made her so complete, the night she passed I had gone to bed early and @ 11:05 my time, my sleeping mask flew off and landed back on my head up side down I was dumb founded it has never fallen off it is to secure, I I laid there and laughed for awhile than got up and went to the bathroom and for some reason I turned on the computer to check out FB and I had a message to call her daughter Betty I knew it was late but I called anyway I just had this bad feeling and this is when Betty told me that my Chari had passed I was heart broken and overflowing with sadness any way after I hung up I realized it was my Chari letting me know she was good, RIP MY SOUL SISTER xoxoxo
