“ Aunt Marion, I am so sorry about Uncle Clyde's passing. We were planning to stop by on Sunday when we went to the cemetery. It is hard to believe that all my Dad's brothers are gone. I hope you find comfort in your memories. Your niece,

“ Dear Aunt Marion, Gisele, Frank and the girls,
I was sad to learn of Uncle Clyde's passing. I certainly wish I lived closer. But I am sending long distance hugs to all.

So thankful to have grown up next door to you. Your yard was always exceptional. As children we were always invited over. I remember being so surprised to learn about the ice pond down in back. I recall a photo of you and I sharing an important conversation on the porch rail at 20 Glen Street. I think it was before one of Beth's proms, oh so many years ago.
You shall be missed, but not forgotten.
