“ My memories of Donna were from when we were kids. We lived on the same road on the outskirts of North Adams, mass. Her brother Charlie and I were good friends and I dated her older sister Kim for a while. More hanging out than dating. I remember many cold winter nights sitting with Donna and Kim on their front porch steps. She was a great kid back then, I'm sure she grew up to be a great adult too. I've been scanning the internet looking for old friends. I live on my farm in the middle of nowhere Illinois. Came across this obit and really sorry to read of her passing. I survived stage 4 cancer ten years ago and my wife is currently dying from stage 4. Hate to read this but she's in a better place now. To the Hilchey family and her friends, I'm sorry for your loss.
