“ Doreen was an exceptional woman. I admired her strength and loved working with her during our years together at The Transcript. She was a consummate professional, but also a loving and caring friend to so many. Doreen will be deeply missed by me and my entire family.

“ I also worked with Doreen at the Transcript and even after I left to take another job, we stayed in touch and often went to dinner; we were a threesome, Doreen, Cathy Wandrei and myself and we always had such a wonderful time, catching up on each others' lives. It's hard to describe how much Doreen touched my life, and how often I thought of her between our dinner engagements because she was such an extraordinary woman. ( This expression just does not do her justice, and for that I'm sorry. ) She knew how to live life, taking pleasure in the simple things like walking with her dog, planning a trip to Canada, or emailing her friends interesting tidbits. Doreen will never be forgotten by me, and I'm sure her friends all feel the same way. I wish that we all could have had more time with her. My most sincere sympathy go out to her family.
