“ Suzanne, I'm sorry about your mother...I did not realize that it was your mother in the North Adams Commons who was a room-mate with my mother, Christine...I knew that it was my uncle Joe's Aunt, but it didn't dawn on me that it was your mother...I asked my Aunt to get your address so I could send a card, but I'm still waiting. I hope you get this. Take Care, Love Sue Halverson (Scieszka)....and also to your family: I'm am very sorry for your loss.

“ *To Walter and family-
I wish to express my deepest sympathy at this time and say that my thoughts have been with you since reading about Cioci Dort's passing. She was one of the loveliest women I have ever known.
Her vitality was a continuous inspiration.*

I will always remember her pleasant ways and how she and the other family members always made me feel so much at home and a part of the Loc/Chojnowski/Kozik family.

May your memories be a source of comfort.
