“ *My Dearest Rosie O, And Anne, Family, and Earl's beloved Wife Leona,
My heart simply hurts with the passing of your dear, gentle, kind, "Earl".
I knew the true gentleman. Indeed, a gentle man. His loss is Heaven's gain so it is said, but try telling my heart and so many others that. Rest In Peace, Earl. You are so deeply loved, and always will be remembered. A beautiful smile, a special gift God placed in our world to brighten days for all who were blessed that knew him and his wonderful family.
All my love,

“ I knew Earl all of my life. From going to the Texan with my grandfather, Chet Harrison, for coffee, to visiting him at his garage, to Saturday morning coffee at McDonald's after I started teaching, he was a kind and thoughtful gentleman that was always fun to be around. My condolences to his family.
