“ I am really saddened to hear of Eileen's passing. She was a dear friend to my mom and to our family. I have such fond memories of her and my psuedo cousins; like putting on shows for our parents when we were little. The headless horseman comes to mind. Please know that my thoughts and prayers are with you during this difficult time.

Best regards, Elizabeth Mauro (ask Betty Kolodziej, daughter to Janice)

“ Shirley: My condolences on the passing of your sister Eileen. The obit shows she is a real lady and a RN. Being a military wife also added extra hardships as well as joy during very day of life to include "moving" and many schools for the kids. RIP Eileen. Robert G Francis, Lt Col, US Army Retired

Found this after looking up a dear college friend who actually came home with me to Niantic Ct one weekend and we had dates with coast guard cadets that Eileen actually fell in love with and married. Kenneth Kerns. Eileen was a lovely woman and i will remember our school days fondly. We were told we looked a lot alike. My sincere sympathies to her family.
