“ What can I say about Elaine? Her nephew, Allan and I spend many hours "across the field" visiting the Loves. Elaine taught by example as far as "doing unto others"-being compassionate, kind, loving and very patient not only with her children, but with everyone she came into contact with!

Elaine provided a home for her husband, Richard, her children and anyone who came to visit including neighborhood children such as myself-she was very hospitable and always had something in the oven!

Our condolences to Richard, Larry, Randy, Kathy and their families. Elaine will truly be missed by everoyone.

Sincerely, Paul, Joni, and Aaron Donahue

“ Larry,Randy,Kathy,and family,
My heartfelt condolences on the loss of your Mom. I have great memories of her at the library. I am sure we gave her a 'run for her money' at times, but she was always a kind, patient, compassionate, and classy lady. While it has been many years since I've seen you, I want you all to know that you are in my thoughts this evening.

While I only had the honor of meeting Elaine a few times, I know the tremendous respect and love that Randy and the rest of her family had for her from the many stories that Randy has shared about his mom and dad over the years.
