“ Betty, my sweet Betty. I will miss you so badly. Our love for pigs will go on and on. Who will listen to my stories when I need a shoulder to cry on? My tears will never be wasted when I think of you. Though I know that our club forbade tears. I will always love you Betty and Bill as well and your wonderful family. God Bless you dear friend and your whole family. See you in heaven darlin.

“ Betty, my sweet Betty (Elizabitch as she wished to be called) and all that knew her well were in the club. You were a shoulder to cry on and you never made a judgement. You and I knew the value of a piglet. We shared many laughs over your wonderful collection. I can't replace you Betty and that makes me so sad. You will forever be in my heart as will Bill. See you in the afterlife my friend. I love you. I love your family. God Bless you and them.
