“ Ethan, you were the first one to break my heart and teach me how to live off the spur of the moment and just be carefree. We had a ton of laughs and were long time friends. We went two separate ways as we grew older and I am sorry I didn't spend more time talking to you when you lived down the street from me, but I had to be a mom first, that youthfulness was tucked away for awhile. But every time I see a ninja I laugh because of you. We caused much mischief and they are memories I will always cherish. Rest easy now my friend and know you are at peace and we will see each other on the other side!
