“ Dear Carol and Chris, so sorry to read about your mom's passing. Your mom was always so kind to me. Wow, could she cook! I was such a dork back then and never realized the goodness in her nor properly thanked her. She taught me how to sew and stitch correctly and I have never been long without a button my whole life because of it. With deepest prayers, Pete

“ Dear Carol, Sarah & Dave,
I am so saddened to learn of your Mom's/Grandmother's passing. I rejoice with you that you had her in your lives for so many years, and especially that she knew her new great-granddaughter will bear her name. She seemed so happy at your baby shower, Sarah. Clearly she stayed engaged with her family and friends right to the last.
Your Mom was a good friend to my Mom, dropping her little notes in the mail now and again, and occasionally chatting over the phone. They did stay in touch right up to the end. Mom will be so saddened to learn the news.
Please accept my deepest sympathy.
Love, Ann/Auntie

Thanks for your kind words, Ann. My Mom loved corresponding and talking with your Mom, and would always ask me how she was doing. I'm glad they got the chance to connect again in person just a few weeks ago. xo, Carol “ Great memories of spending time with her in the summer along with Sarah and Alexis. Going to Bonanza, and making waterslides out of old shower curtains. Now she can keep my grandma company, she’s been waiting for her for a long time. Thinking of all of you.

“ Carol - we are sorry to hear of your beloved Mother's death. May her legacy live on through you. Everytime at gaze at my daughters ceiling and your cloud mural I think of you. The beautiful cloud mural continues to grace us. May you find the peace I find in that image.

Chris, Carol and Mike

I met your lovely Mother approximately 40 years ago when we visited in the family home. I can still smell those delicious Italian aromas that penetrated throughout. I think we have exchanged Christmas cards every year since, with her commenting on watching my child and grandchildren grow through photos shared. My sincere condolences to all of you but more than that I say lucky you for being her children. Life well done !!

Thank you so much, Gay. Mike caught me up on your visit to Wisconsin a couple of weeks ago. I'm so glad you and Mike had a chance to visit with Vince before he passed. I have such fond memories of visiting all of you in England many years ago, and the subsequent get-togethers in Mass. and N.C. I hope our paths can cross again some time in the not-too-distant future.

*“ I was actually just thinking about Mrs Leonesio this morning for some reason. I have so many great memories of Mrs. Leonesio from back when we were neighbors in the 60's and from when I used to visit Carol after we moved to Vt. She was always so nice. I remember her baking and my younger brother and sister going to stand at her back door waiting for a treat. My condolences to Carol, Chris and Michael and their families.
