“ To the Whalen and extended families,

Isabelle was a light. I appreciated her sense of humor, unwavering adoration of her family and friends, and her spirit of independence and adventure. I frequently think of her, which finds me here, albeit a month or so late. Isabelle, I hope you and J (and your beloved family members) are getting around just fine now at your home in the heavens. I will continue to think of you. Isabelle's cherished family, I send my condolences and empathy. May happy memories comfort you now and always.

Love, Brenna McGinn Ferrentino (niece of the late Jeannette Bedard)

“ Isabelle truly discovered the meaning of life by being meaningful to others. She was not only dear to her friends and family, but all those people to whom she extended her warmth and generosity as a volunteer. Based on her example, I am very proud to be a "Huay-len!"

Her profound impact on finding joy in my life is immeasurable. My fondest memories of her are countless: Friday night sleepovers, weekend fun fairs, seeing plays at the Mac-Haydn theater, piano lessons and playing duets with her on the clarinet!, hiking to Rock City and Mt. Greylock, burning off the ample energy of youth at the Burger King and Dalton playgrounds, her ALWAYS having Trident gum, singing songs in the back of the car---which had the directional signal ticking CONSTANTLY!--, seeing movies at Hoyts after a contraband snack run at Hills--to be packed into the light brown back-pack!--her love of language, crossword puzzles and Scrabble!, her fondness for Ireland and her Irish heritage, "Tums for the tummy," her 16+ hour sleeper-car train trips to Wisconsin, her slide shows and prize-winning pictures, her always arriving 30 minutes early for EVERY event, and her being present at EVERY event in my life from minor league baseball, to high school soccer games and track meets, to parades to watch the Taconic High School marching band, to concert band recitals, and, especially, her homemade Fudge! (the secret recipe for which still eludes the most skilled bakers in the Whalen family!)

Even more inspiring to me than these cherished echoes from the past, are the ways in which my life has, as it turns out, has almost unconsciously evolved to parallel her own: appreciation of music, participation in sports, love of language, valuing support of friends and family, taking pride in a job well-done, and always carrying a pack of gum! When I visited Ireland last year and saw the beauty and magic of the country, I began to realize why she was so enchanted with this aspect of the Whalen family heritage.

I always used to think that my family somehow won a huge bonus by having Isabelle in addition to our loving grandparents, that every family needs an Isabelle. I feel very fortunate to have been blessed with her devotion and omnipresence.

Although I am deeply saddened by per passing, I revel in the enormity of her life and gladly will strive toward the shining example that she has set for a life successfully lived.

Isabelle, I love you.

“ Kevin, Diane, Mike, Matt & Danny,
You lost someone who held a special place in your hearts and in your life. Isabelle was truly blessed to have you all in her life. She was a amazing remarkable woman. We have so many fine memories of her at all the boys games. Her yelling out into the crowd as a proud Aunt. Her offering even to help bringing the boys to and from CYC practice. One memory was her telling me David was brought home a little later was because she swung by Burger King or McDonalds, because she said the boys were hungry, lol. I know the boys enjoyed her company as much as she enjoyed there's. She will truly be missed by everyone. May memories of her bring you comfort, peace and reassure you that love endures forever. Our Deepest Sympathy to you all.

Dear Diane, Kevin, Michael, Matt, and Dan,

My deepest sympathies.

I celebrate that Isabell a positive presence in your family, and by extension in my life as well. Diane and I shared many lunchtime walks to discuss work situations where we'd re-frame and look at situations through Isabell's calm and optimistic eyes.

The stories of her adventures with the boys and their friends when they were young, and her drives across state lines to her favorite deli in her late years of driving were always enjoyable. Her deep love for family was evident.

Sending hugs and love,
