“ I relocated to Pittsfield with GE Plastics Lexan Division Marketing in 1984. Flo was the executive secretary in the marketing department. I remember her as always helping everyone, and also made me feel welcome into a new work environment and a new city.
After reading the obituary, I just now realized that she had lost her husband only a couple of years prior. It is amazing now, thinking how challenging her life must have been, yet she gave no indication of that struggle.
My condolences to her children and family. God had truly blessed her with a long life to be treasured with her family.
Sincerely,
David Wiechecki
