

Florence Lucia

January 24, 2012

Florence A. (Zepka) Lucia, 79, formerly of 4 Pleasant Street, Adams, Ma, died peacefully at home with loved ones by her side. She gracefully passed-on to be with the Lord after a long fight with Alzheimer's disease.

She was born on November 19, 1932, in Adams, Ma., the daughter of the late Mary and John Zepka. She was one of nine siblings. Henry, Mildred, Helen, Fredrick, Josephine, Robert, Richard & Patricia. On July 08, 1949 she married the late Arthur (Tony) G. Lucia and lived happily in Adams, Ma., where they raised their family of four children.

Florence spent her days working hard as a homemaker and as a wiring technician at General Electric where she fostered many friendships and earned the respect of many people. She prided herself on keeping a lovely garden and home, she enjoyed bingo, dancing, and traveling with her husband, Tony.

As the years progressed and the family grew Florence was always there for her children, grandchildren, and great grandchild to share in all of the joys life provided. She became known in later years as Nana to those who loved her. We will never forget all of the pounds of meatballs we enjoyed over the years as she made the best in town!
