

Mr. Francis P. Celentano

September 9, 1959 - July 22, 2021

Mr. Francis P. Celentano, 61, of Lanesboro, died on Thursday, July 22, 2021, at his home.

He was born in Ludlow on September 9, 1959, a son of the late Francis and Mary (Presz) Celentano. He graduated from the Minnechaug Regional High School in Wilbraham and went on to attend Springfield Technical Community College.

He formerly worked for Clean Waste, Inc in Adams.

Fran was a member of the Western Mass Brain Injury Program and loved listening to music, watching sports and spending time with friends and family. He invariably approached each day with optimism and gratitude for his life and the people he cared about.

He is survived by his daughter Alyssa Celentano of East Longmeadow; his former wife, the former Patricia Cokely of East Longmeadow; his sister Rosalie Girard and her husband William of Cheshire; his brother Louis Celentano and his wife Elizabeth of Adams and by many nieces and nephews.

He was predeceased by his brother, Edward Celentano.

Funeral services and burial will be private for the family.

There are no calling hours.

Memorial donations may be made to Berkshire County ARC, 395 South St., Pittsfield, MA 01201.

“ I am so sorry to learn of Fran's passing. Fran was a true friend to me when we were growing up together in Wilbraham. I have many wonderful memories of the adventures we shared. Fran, his dear mother, and all the family always made me feel so welcome in the Celentano home. I'm sending you all love and peace. I will not forget my dear friend Fran.

“ To the family.
So sorry for your loss of Fran. I have known him my whole life. I have so many memories of him his kindness his humor his memory and knowledge. His strength most of all. He rose above his accident and disabilities and fought them and never gave up. His kind soul and smile is what I'll remember most. I know his memory will live on in all of you also. Rest In Peace my friend.
