“ To the Family and Friends of George,

It is with great sadness that I learned of George's passing yesterday from my mom. My mom was away at a family wedding or I would have learned of his passing in time to make it back to Adams for the service.

George has special meaning to me because of his relationship to Wenzel's farm and to my dad. George was there to say a few poignant words and to hand my mom a flag at my dad's funeral a few years ago, and George was there on the farm in the 30's and 40's and worked side by side with my dad in the fields. When my mom told me about Georges passing, she said, "Aunt Marie (Grande) is the only one left." What she meant was that Aunt Marie is the last living link to the history of that farm, now that George and Danny Krzreminski are gone. With George's passing, a little more of that history has been lost.

George is also special because he symbolizes what community is all about. He lived his entire life in Adams and enjoyed many lifelong friends, and was dedicated to the town, its veterans, and to the church. I moved away from town many years ago to pursue a career, and I lost so much of what that kind of community is all about. What a great thing for George, his family, and his town.

I would like to send my deepest sympathies to the family.

Regards,

“ To George Coope's Family,

How honored I was to have known your Father, your Grandfather and our friend George E.Coope! To me he was the mayor of Adams and without a doubt was the kindest and most sincere person I have ever met in this life. A man who would do ANYTHING for you and a man who was thrilled just to get up in the morning, smell the fresh cut grass, feel the sunsine and enjoy the day. I first met him at the Polanka grounds over 20 years ago as he danced to polka music. When I asked my Mom that day, "Who is that guy?" She looked at me and said, "Oh....that's our friend George Coope!" I will miss our friend George Coope so very, very much each Wednesday when I head up to Adams to visit Fr. Dan. There will never, ever, ever be another person like him. I miss him already. May God hold him in the palm of His hand! George...pray for me!
