“ Ed and I send our sincerest condolences to Sandy, Jim, Susan and family. I cannot say enough about what a wonderful man Harold was. He was a fantastic roommate to my Dad at Wmst Commons, and is sorely missed already. Harold was a model of grace and kindness who will never be forgotten by us. All our thoughts and prayers are going out to his incredible family. You have beautiful memories to hold dear to your heart.

“ Harold and I were not just cousins but childhood friends as well. He took me all over WhiteOaks (on his bike) from Broad Brook to Sand Springs and everywhere in between. He kept me entertained and gave me so many fun memories. He was a nice boy and a good man. My thoughts are with you Sandy and the children. Nancy Guerino
