“ Dearest Linda, Chip, Beth and Lauri, My heart today is really breaking at the news of Auntie's passing. So many times she rescued me, Holly, Tim, Chris and Mary Dell when we were children. She was tender and kind always and always showed such deep love beyond words to terrified children. These lines are blurred by my tears and I wish I could ease your pain and grief just a little. I loved your mom as if my own mother. She will always be in my heart. Pete

“ When I first became a licensed real estate agent with my dad 25 years ago...one of the first agents I met was Jacky. Over the years I enjoyed working with her and admired her professionalism. We have lost an icon in the real estate world...but more importantly a wonderful friend. Rest in peace Jacky.

“ I am so sad to hear of Jackie's passing. She was my first para in my teaching career and she taught me more than I can say, all the while being patient and kind. I'll miss our holiday notes. When I ran into her a couple of years ago, she was the same beautiful soul I knew all those years ago. My thoughts and prayers go out to the family and friends of this special lady. She will be missed.

“ To the entire Cardonnel family. Sorry to hear about Jackie's passing. We were out of town last week and heard about it when we returned. She always had time to talk to anybody and always reminded us about the time our cows got loose and were in her front yard.
