

Mr. James "Jimmo" Blanquart

May 8, 1953 - January 16, 2017

James R. "Jimmo" Blanquart, 63, of Adams, died Monday morning, January 16, 2017, at Baystate Medical Center in Springfield.

He was born in North Adams on May 8, 1953, the son of the late Robert and Carolyn (Roberts) Blanquart. He attended local schools, and graduated from Hoosac Valley High School.

Jimmo last worked as the warehouse manager for Morelli Wholesale Plumbing Supply in Las Vegas, Nevada, until retiring due to ill health and returning to Adams eight years ago.

He was an avid sports fan, and also enjoyed old music and watching classic movies.

The last of his immediate family, he is survived by Dorothy Waterman of Cheshire, whom he considered his "second mother", as well as her family, and many friends.

A gathering to celebrate Jimmo's life will be held on Saturday, January 21st, at 1:00 PM at Adams Post 160 American Legion, 160 Forest Park Avenue, Adams. All are invited to attend.

There are no calling hours.

The PACIOREK FUNERAL HOME, Adams, is assisting with arrangements.

“ James was my teammate in Church League back in the 1970s. He was a great baseline driver. I never called him Jimmo, as I had great respect for him. He was a very funny guy, but he showed a sensitive side to some people. He was a very thoughtful person and a interesting man with whom to converse. I have great memories of him.
