“ I was a classmate of Jim at Bentley College in 1969. A great guy I got real friendly with. Always wondered what he was doing over the years. I had tried to call him for a college reunion back a few years ago, left a message on the phone but never heard back from him. Just recently I got the Bentley Observer and found out about his passing. I am sorry to hear about it and wished I had tried a little harder to reach him. I cannot begin to tell you the fun we had in college. One of the BEST guys I ever met. Really miss him. My deepest condolences.

“ Jim "Dude" brightened my sons morning. Every day PJ would visit Jim on his way to pre-k at the College and they would have m&m's, open the safe, and log on the computer. He welcomed this little 3 year old into his morning routine without hesitation and continued to stay in touch with him throughout the years. As a co-worker Jim was funny, smart and thoughtful. He will always be in our hearts. Our thoughts and prayers are with you Joyce and Jeffrey.

“ *Dear Joyce, Jeffrey and family
My deepest sympathy knowing of your great loss of Jim- a loving husband, Dad, Grand Dad and a friend to so many.
Jim's spirit and determination in the shadow of many challenges will remain an inspiration always.
His passion for sports was intense and he had his favorite teams, but he always had compassion for those on the losing side.
Jim got to see the greatest play in his life when Jeffrey made that catch on his back against P.H.S. Most importantly Jim got to live the greatest of plays as a family man and friend.*

*Thinking of you-
Sincerely Jim Whitman*

“ *To Joyce and family, our sincere condolences for your loss of Jim. As struggling student at NASC back in the day, Jim was a great help in keeping me in school while I worked to pay my bills. Later as co-worker, I got to know Jim as a smart, friendly, supportive, fun, gentleman, and among the nicest people I had the good fortune to know. Our thoughts and prayers are with your family - Sincerely,
Rob & Mitzi Cote*
