

Mr. James F. Currier

August 2, 1953 - December 12, 2024

Mr. James F. Currier, 71, of North Adams, died on Thursday, December 12, 2024, at his home.

He was born in Westfield on August 2, 1953, a son of the late Carol Currier. He attended schools in Westfield and graduated from Smith Vocational High School.

Mr. Currier worked as a mechanic for several different companies and with his sons.

He is survived by his daughter, Cristy Briggs and her fiancé James Lewis of North Adams; three sons, Jesse Currier and his fiancé Shelly Crawford of North Adams, Eric Currier and his wife Kristen of New Hampshire and Josh Currier of New Hampshire; his brother Wayne Glines; three sisters, Millie O'Dell, Ginger Glines and Sharon Wright; eleven grandchildren, Chad, Molly, Danny, Sabrina, Heatherlee, Elizabeth, Jamie, Gracie, Tonilee, Izzy and Weston; ten great grandchildren, Bentley, Serenity, Jackson, Matthew, Emerson, Gerald, Owen, Tyler, Riley and Graysin; his very close friend Suzanne Lajoie and many nieces and nephews.

He was predeceased by his son James A. Currier.

Per Mr. Currier's wishes there are no funeral services.

Tribute Wall

JH

“Wow, I just can't believe this. I talked to him the week before. My heart is so broken. Jim was such a nice guy. Always trying to help out someone. He was always so nice to talk with too and funny . I met Jim well over 25 years ago when he worked for Maynard and lesiure. Jim will so sadly missed but never forgotten. Love u my buddy. □□

Jessica Halll - December 23, 2024 at 10:21 AM