“ My brother Johnny & I went to the Red Carpet for Lunch specifically to see Jean and say Thank you to her and to Ann for the many years of great meals served to my parents Nick & Margie with my brother and occasionally me, when they would bring their cars to McAndrew King for service. We didn't see Jean, and thought we had arrived too late. After paying and saying goodbye to friends who we met for lunch, we asked for Jean & Ann. Ann had left already. Then we learned about Jean's death. We are very sorry. After the death of our parents in 2016 & 2017, we don't get back to all the places they frequented. Jean had told me after I attended Danny Zalogas burial, that he was a friend of hers also. I had the honor of being Danny's coach in Park City in 1985!
Once again, we are very sorry about Jean's passing, she made our visits to Adams enjoyable and memorable!

“ I'm so sorry for your loss. Jean was a special lady. She had such a larger than life personality and always had a smile on her face! Lunches at the Red Carpet will never be the same again. I'll miss our conversations and her joking ways. May you RIP Jean.

“ I first met Jean in the first grade. I remember her being so impressed that I could count to 100. We were friends all through school and afterward. She was larger than life, always happy and a friend to everyone. Her smile and outgoing personality will very much be missed. Love you, Jean!! RIP
