“ Cathy, Bruce, Sarah, Jordan & Valerie:

I know Jeannine is at peace now with your Dad, probably celebrating their anniversary. John and I hope you all may find peace in the days ahead as well. Each of you has shown your love and commitment to family in caring for Jeannine these past 5 years.

Sarah, for someone so young, you had a good understanding of what was happening and helped when you could. I'm so proud of you.

Bruce, Cathy is blessed to have you. You have been so loving and understanding and helpful.

Cathy, I know Mom is truly proud of you, for the person you are, and for being there for her all these years. I'll never forget our phone call to her about the Apostles, and how she opened her home to me and my family when we visited, and how excited she was to surprise you at your baby shower at my house, and how she and your Dad both sang your praises, and how truly blessed they felt when you brought Sarah into this world. I remember you and your Mom discussing how to spell her name - Sara or Sarah - at the hospital when she was born. I recall how she looked forward to Sarah spending summers with her. I also watched her slip away slowly with Alzheimer's and you by her side to help her, care for her, and love her.

I can't say enough how proud we are of you and find comfort in knowing Jeannine is at rest now. Keep your memories close - I say memories are hugs from heaven.

We love you guys!!!! - John and Cindy
