“ My heartfelt condolences to all of Joan's family. I met Joan two and a half years ago, when my parents became residents of the Williamstown Nursing Home and Joan was also there. She was a kind, generous, and gentle person and took a particular interest in helping my parents. Early on my dad was in a wheelchair and my mother used a walker because of bad arthritis in her knees. For awhile Joan and my parents sat at the same dining table. Joan always made sure that my parents made it back and forth to the dining room every day. I got to know Joan a little whenever I visited my parents and I am greatly saddened to hear of her passing.
