“ I am very sad to loose my oldest brother. He was always kind to me. Knowing I'd be nervous traveling back to the west coast alone one time he even gave me a Teddy bear to hold. What grown man would think of that for his sister! The visits to Cheshire will never be the same without him. Thinking of Linda, Jessica, and Jeremy. See you in another life John. Love Pat

“ Dear Family of my first cousin "Sonny", his wife, his children, his grandchildren and siblings and their families, Although we have not seen our cousin John Joseph Gwozdz, as we knew as "Sonny", we have always cherished the memories of the great days at his boyhood home in East Cheshire, MA. On Fales Rd. We were very close to Uncle Johnny and Aunt Mary, his wonderful parents. There were so many exciting times working on the chicken farm, picking raspberries, talking with Aunt Mary, playing the player piano and singing for hours on end. Cousins Barbara, Sonny, Patsy, Arthur and Joey were always there! We played games and enjoyed each other's company. Sonny was the tall blond, very quiet and smart. We lost touch so many years ago...perhaps 55 years ago, when we of the Anthony "Uncle Tony" Gwozdz cousins scattered all over the country and the world, however, we shall never forget our childhood times with cousin Sonny and his siblings on the Hilltop Gwozdz farm. We remember you John Joseph "Sonny"
