“ We moved next door to Pete in the midst of the pandemic during winter. Pete always came out to help, a very kind man. I will miss bringing extra food to him. He was a true gentleman, he is missed.

“ I worked with Pete over the course of 15 years at W.R, Grace. He was a good friend to me after. I will miss him and his wonderful laugh. He is now with his friend Tommy Richardson bellying up to the bar for a beer and bowling a frame or two. Please accept my sincere condolences over his loss.
