

John Murray

July 2, 2012

Mr. John L. Murray, 90, of 150 Ashland St., North Adams, died on Monday, July 2, 2012 at North Adams Commons.

He was born in North Adams on July 14, 1921, a son of the late John W. and Alice (Russett) Murray. He attended schools in North Adams and graduated from Drury High School.

Mr. Murray worked as a tool maker and machinist for 45 years at the former Sprague Electric Co., North Adams until retiring.

Mr. Murray was a Life Member of the North Adams Lodge of Elks and several Sportsman's Clubs in the area. He was a skilled trout fisherman and was an avid Boston Red Sox and Boston Celtics fan as well as an avid Kentucky Wild Cats fan.

He is survived by a brother, Alan Murray of Glastonbury, CT and by his sister Doris Perrault and her husband Raymond of Cheshire.

He was predeceased by his brother, Norman Murray.

Funeral services and burial in Southview Cemetery, North Adams, will be private at the convenience of the family.

There are no calling hours.

The PACIOREK FUNERAL HOME, 13 Hoosac St., Adams, is in charge of arrangements.

Tribute Wall

“ Alan , I was very sorry to read of your brother John's passing. I still have fond memories of your Mother, John, Norman and you Alan. When you lived on Holbrook St., and later Yale St.

When all is said and done, I guess 90 is not a bad number for a journey we're all going to take eventually. My heartfelt sympathy to your family. Leo

---

July 09, 2012 at 12:00 AM