“Larry Was such a loving and devoted father to his daughter Lilly Beth. Larry was my neighbor and was always so nice to talk to. He did everything he could for his daughter, and talked often about his other children and siblings with such love and devotion. He will be missed at the bus stops and for play dates with Lily. My son very much enjoyed playing with Lilly and I enjoyed visiting with Larry. We will all miss him, and are grateful for the time we were able to know him.

“ I have so many great stories with Larry in the 45 years of our friendship. This is how I met. He was a bouncer at this club in NY state and the band I was with was playing and going on break. Trying to get outside and Larry was breaking up a fight at the front door so someone said can you hurry up.. so Larry hit this guy so hard he put him in the wall and he was stuck between the wood.... That's how we met and been great friends ever ...since. A great man with big dreams and a big heart... We will all miss you. Brother.
