“ My condolences to all of the Bissaillon and Corbiere Families, etc. Uncle Chuck will surely be missed. He was such a kind and caring person. I remember him walking at a quick pace all the time, wanting to get to places very fast. I liked to joke around with him, he would give you a big smile. One of the best jokes I played on him was one day going to visit Mim I parked in the driveway next to Uncle Chuck's car and found a dead bird. I immediately picked the bird up and put it in front of his car tire so he did not see me. I went in his house and asked him why he ran over a bird in the driveway, he was surprised and of course denied it. I never let him forget it. I would always ask him if he killed any birds lately when I saw him. Once in a while he would get me first and ask me if I killed any birds lately with my car. I also remember Uncle Chuck as a great Supervisor. He loved to give his opinion on how to do jobs around the house that I was working on. Many Blessings and Prayers to you all!
