“ I knew Lou a short time but could always count on a happy go lucky guy when he came to visit his daughter. He always loved talking about the hunting or fishing...even the local high school sport teams. We could sit there for hours talking about the past and the future. My family's thoughts and prayers are with you in this time of sorrow. Just know that your dad is in the kingdom that has no end...and he is still cheering for those Red Sox.
