

Mr. Mark L. Boisvert

October 9, 1960 - April 15, 2025

Mark Leonard Boisvert passed away peacefully on April 15, 2025. His family called him Mark but he was affectionately known as "Bugz" by his friends. Born in North Adams, MA, Mark grew up in Cheshire and graduated from Hoosac Valley High School in 1979.

An expert skier Mark spent much time at Brodie Mountain where he worked as a ski instructor and later at Killington Resort in Vermont. It was Mark's love of skiing and the outdoors that drew him to his longtime home in the Grand Teton Valley of Jackson, WY later moving over "The Pass" to Victor and Driggs, ID. Having a heart for adventure, the western landscape provided Mark the opportunity to pursue his love of skiing, rock climbing and cross-mountain running. Mark always remained a great fan of the New England sports teams. Particularly the Red Sox, Patriots & Bruins. Mark was an accomplished carpenter and photographer. He also enjoyed reading and writing poetry with his final verse being "No Bad Turns, No Bad Nails, No Bad Love".

He is predeceased by his parents Leonard R. Boisvert and Patricia J. (Beaubien) Boisvert. He is survived by his sisters Barbara B. Michaud and her husband John Yarmo of Candia, NH and Ellen M. "Sam" Presnick and husband Todd of Sioux Falls, SD. Nephews Jesse F. Michaud and fiancé Amanda Fontaine of Manchester, NH and Scott L. Michaud and family, Abby, Ben and Ellie of Hooksett, NH.

A Memorial Service for Mark will take place at Paciorek Funeral Home, 13

Hoosac Street, Adams MA on Friday August 29, 2025 from 12:00 Noon to 1:00PM.

Mark's final resting place will be in the Valley of Mt. Greylock in Bellevue Cemetery immediately following the memorial service.
