“ Sorry to hear of Michelle's passing. We grew up together at Notre Dame school. She was my first love from kindergarten to 4th grade. Life took us on different paths but she will always hold a special place in my heart. Sleep with the angels my friend.

I am in that picture with Michelle and the others including Mike Tanguay. I was in her class from Kindergarten through 12th grade at McCann. After high school, I left for College and life happened and I never returned, losing contact with everyone in that picture. I knew her well back then. I pray for the repose of her soul and for peace for her and her family. May God bless them all.
