“ I don't know why the Lord called you so early Perry, but I am sure he had beautiful plans for you and I know you are again reunited with Erin in his presence. I will always be grateful to you, Erin, and the kids for being always there for us. I will forever treasure your friendship and the moments we spent together in Heidelberg. You were, and always will be, so special to us, and considered you as our extended family. Our hearts grief profoundly while we try to understand why you left us so early. You and Erin will always be in our hearts, mind, and prayers. Rest in Peace my friend!
