“ So sorry to hear about my cousin, Peter's passing. My life took me to the Boston area and my memories of Pete were mostly as youngsters at our grandparents house on Christmas eve. I always remember him as a great guy! Rest in peace, Pete.

“ To Pete's Family, I am so sorry for your loss. I worked with Pete at UST for many years. I will always remember Pete for his love of odd cars, his good natured greetings every morning when he came out to the shop, and of course his signature style and Wizard of Oz watch. Pete was a joy to be around and one of the kindest guys I've ever known. I'm so sorry to hear of his passing. Rest Easy Pete.

“ So sorry for your loss. Peter and I were classmates from Elementary through High school. I have many fond memories of times we spent playing in his back yard or the adventures we took climbing Mount Graylock or swimming in the stream above the Fisk Street Dam. Peter always had a great sense of humor and was a true friend.
