Rita Theresa (Remillard) Reardon, 92, of North Adams, passed away peacefully at Williamstown Commons on Sunday January 12, 2025.

She was born on November 25, 1932 in Lacolle, Quebec Canada, a daughter of the late Romeo and Edna (Lecuyer) Remillard. She came to North Adams as a child and attended the former Notre Dame School in North Adams.

She had worked for the former New England Telephone Company before her marriage. She was primarily a homemaker, raising her five children before going back to work in the North Adams School system in the Drury High School cafeteria. She also worked for a number of years before retiring at the former Sprague Electric Co.

While camping she made lots of cherished memories with her grandchildren as well as forming lifelong friendships with many other campers. Rita also enjoyed any time she spent with her grandchildren, especially the holidays when everyone gathered at her home. The highlight of her life was a surprise visit from anyone in her family. Her husband, Howard A. Reardon, whom she married on August 27, 1955, died on April 28, 1987. She is survived by her children William (Mary) Reardon of Rowe, Linda (Gregory) Hunter of Citrus Springs FL, Thomas (Susan) Reardon of Cheshire, Donna

“ So sorry to learn about Rita's passing.

Rita always had a big smile whenever I would visit at her home, many years ago, with my family.

I enjoyed going to that great big house on Bracewell Ave to visit everyone!

My father and Rita's niece Nancy (my stepmom), were married in that backyard.

I'm thankful for getting to know Rita and the whole family.

So cool to have sisters and their families, live together in a big house (duplex), always there for each other.

I've seen Rita in recent years while visiting my mother in Williamstown. Rita loved flipping through the magazines! :)

*She'll be missed. Sending condolences to all of the family.
