“ to the Lebeau family, I am deeply saddened and express my heartfelt grief at the loss of your Dad. Living across the st from you guys at 42 Grove and being your Mom and Dad's paper boy for the Transcript way back in the late 60's, I adored your family, your big gorgeous house and pool. Your parents had such class . We all went to St Marks together, your Mom and Dad even came to my Mom and Dad's funerals. Time goes on. With love and gratitude for having the wonderful time and experiences knowing you all especially your Mom and Dad...take care love Tim Austin

“ I am so sorry for your loss. My sincere condolences to all the family. I knew Bob from the time I was in the Guards. Always known then as "Captain LeBeau". He was a great leader then at that time in the 60's. He had a way of getting his point across. I shall never forget Bob. R.I.P.
