“ I met Bob when I was just 19 years old, at the Purple Pub in Williamstown. We became fast friends, with common interests in cars, hunting, and of course, women. The decades that followed were filled with the memories that can only be borne from true friendship, and the trust that accompanied it. I spent more time with Bob over the course of those years, than I did with all 3 of my brothers, combined. I will miss you Bob.

“ Sending my most sincere condolences to the entire Spofford family, especially to his beloved Mom, Doris... I'm at a loss for the right words to describe just how truly sad the news of Bob's passing has affected me. So young...so much to look forward to. Thankfully, tough, he won't suffer any longer and is an angel by his Dad's side. Please know that I care so much.

Prior to my Father's passing last year I have many fond memories of Bobby and my Dad making us all laugh at the Steak Bake. When my Dad passed away Bobby was one of the first people to come by the house and tell me he would help with anything that I needed. I will always appreciate that. RIP Bobby, you were a great man!
