“ Dear Wanda and Family - I am so very sorry to learn of your loss. Wanda, you were always so helpful and gracious to me when I was a VERY new department head 20 years ago. Ron has been such a constant user of the Town's public library. We will miss him SO very much here at the Adams Free Library. I will miss his requests for new books on the economy and on the direction of our country in general. What an intelligent, articulate and gentle man he was. With our heartfelt deepest sympathies, Director Debbie Bruneau and the AFL Staff.
